INDIA – AN INCREDIBLE COUNTRY

India is a huge country located in Asia (one of the 7 continents of the world) and is on the Indian Ocean sharing borders with seven countries ie. Pakistan, Bangladesh, China, Nepal, Myanmar, Bhutan and Afghanistan.

India is the third largest country in the world and is second most populated after China.

India's rich history & culture goes back to 6000 years. This is one country where people from various religions, ethnicity have thrive. Regardless of their background, people have lived happily and have progressed in their respective area. It is a land of unlimited possibilities for everyone.

There are different periods which influence the history of India and they can be classified as Ancient, Medieval, British & Mordern. In all these different periods in the history of India, culture/religion/ethnicity/crafts/heritage have made their presence more firmly.

Today as we live in a modern India, we have 29 states and 7 union territories. We practice many religions in India like Hinduism, Christianity, Islam, Sikhism, Judaism, Buddhism, Jainism, Zoroastrianism and the latest one is Bahai.

India has many languages as per regions ie. Hindi, English, Bengali, Marathi, Telugu, Tamil, Gujrati, Urdu, Kannada, Odia, Malayalam, Punjabi, Sanskrit. However, as far as regional languages are concerned, there are hundreds of local languages spoken through-out the borders of India which makes this country so rich.

As we explore India from East to West, North to South – It tends to grow more and more. Once can see different languages, cultures, religions, heritage, ethnicity, food etc...

Weather in India varies from state to state, however, generally there are three major seasons in India ie. Summer / Winter / Rainy or monsoons / Spring.

Summer season: April till June

Rainy season: July till September

Winter season: October till January

Spring season: February till March

( Due global warming, we can see affects, due to which the climate is not constant)

INDIA – AN INCREDIBLE COUNTRY

Passport & Visa information: All travellers to India must possess a valid passport & prior visa.

In order to explore restricted areas (as per govt. of India), the special permits are granted (grant of special permits is in sole discretion of the govt. of India)

For more information on visa to India, please go through the official website: <https://indianvisaonline.gov.in/visa/index.html>

International airports in India: There are 26 airports in India which operates International flights. However, the major entry points for the foreigners are Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Kolkata, Jaipur, Amritsar, Bangalore, Cochin, Trivandrum, Hyderabad, Ahmedabad, Goa & Srinagar

Domestic airports and railway stations: There are 100s of domestic airports in India which are able to connect the countries remotest places. Also, India's railway network is the largest in the world, hence, traveling in train through-out the India is a cheaper option with unforgettable memories.

Road network: In India the road network is a vast network as raw materials, vegetables, fruits, grain etc... are being transported from one part to the another through roads. It is a way cheaper transportation medium and is a huge business in India generating hundreds of thousands of jobs through-out the country.

Economy: India is one of the biggest economies in the world which is growing at a rapid pace of 7% + and is expected to grow further as we proceed. The amount of business, trade, service, manufacturing etc... happens in India is something to look forward to. Today India is a cosmopolitan country and multiple options of doing business with India is available to the world market. India is a world leader when it comes to export/import, manufacturing, productions and we are the leaders of IT sector.

Bollywood: The Indian film industry is the biggest in the world. The number of movies, TV serials, short-films, theatres have outnumbered any film industry in the world. Bollywood is a big industry and is a big boost to the economy wherein hundreds of thousands professional find work and help economy to grow.

INDIA – AN INCREDIBLE COUNTRY

Politics in India: India is a democratic country, where people choose their government & representatives. There is a tenure of 5 years for each government to show-case their potential to the people of India. It's a robust system wherein throughout the 5 years small scale and large scale elections happen and political parties are on their toes. The system is such that it gives sole power to the voters or citizens of the country to decide what is best for them. There is a very systematic way of handling things in India when it comes to politics and hence to run this system Indian government & administration is run by top class bureaucrats & executives who represent India in various forums no matter which government is in power.

Unity in Diversity: India is a diverse country and diverse in the real sense. Such a huge country with diversity every 100 kms, be it language, food, costumes, style of living etc..We have different opinions about almost each and everything and there are forums where we constantly fight for them in order to make our country better every day. But when it comes to our country, we stand united as one nation. And that for sure is the beauty of India "Unity in Diversity"

GOLF TOURS:

Golf is a widely played sport in India and you can find Golf courses almost everywhere in the country's metro cities.

In India, Golf is played by a particular section of the society ie. Higher class, Upper Middle class. It is worth to mention that the sport has ignited the interest in even middle class, who nowadays are actively involved in it.

There are many beautifully constructed Golf courses in India (in hills, plains or surrounded by tea estates).

There are many local & international Golf tournaments conducted in India and as a result Indian players are being recognized in the world as well. The biggest example is the champion Jeev Milkha Singh.

India is looking forward to make a big impact on this sport and we will witness it as time goes by.

LADIES SPECIAL TOURS:

India, Shopping and Ladies groups are something which are growing day by day. India is a shopping paradise for ladies across the world.

Since, India has a vast culture, tradition due to which the costumes differ almost every 50-100 kms in this country. As a result it is becoming a hub for the world to come and explore the various possibilities of trying new attire. India offers very competitive market for the costumes & accessories to the world and many of the materials are being exported to western as well as south asian communities.

There is a growing demand for Ladies special tours in India. As a responsible travel company, we provide quality & reliable services with safety.

FAIRS & FESTIVALS:

There are numerous fairs & festivals in India. Due to the country's size & diversity, we have fairs & festivals almost every second week. If we were to list all of them – then it can be a never ending story.

India has few major fairs & festivals which attracts tourists from all over the world. Those are: Holi, Diwali, Dussera, Gangaur festival, Pongal, Desert festival, Nagaur fair, Good Friday, Easter, Vishu, Nau Roz, Bihu, Budha purnima, Id, Rath Yatra, Teej, Nag panchami, Ganesh Chaturthi, Onam, Janmashtmi, Muharram, Guru Purab, Navratri, Christmas, Kumbh Fair and the most popular of all The Pushkar Fair.

TRANSPORTATION:

Transportation is something which needs to be selected very meticulously, as while traveling in India one faces a lot of extreme conditions. Hence, a good transport can make your travel even more enjoyable. Keeping this in mind, we provide quality vehicles with excellent drivers. Some of the vehicle we provide are listed below:
